

Confirmation Sponsor Requirements

In order to be an example of faithful Catholic life, a sponsor must be living in accordance with the moral teachings of the Church, including weekly Mass attendance, regular reception of the Eucharist and confession/reconciliation in accordance with the guidelines of the Church. Sponsors must be an example of Christian character in the various aspects of their life: personal, business, Church and social, free from the bondage of habitual mortal sin. Sponsors must be living faithfully in their vocation as either a married spouse or single/celebrate person. All persons acting as sponsors must be fully initiated (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation) and at least 16 years old before the day of Confirmation.
